BRIDE OF MONDAY HONORED.

Mrs. C. J. Glick of Ohio avenue, Davenport, entertained at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday afternoon for Miss Esther Lindholm, her sister, who is to be the bride of Louis Clemann of Vero, Fla., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clemann of Rock Island.

It was a pink and white party, everything in decoration and serving of refreshments being in the prismatic colors. The table centerpiece was a wedding cake with miniature bride and groom in ornamentation, white bells hung from the ceiling, and ribbons were tied to little baskets filled with rice with which the bride-to-be was showered.

The guests were the Misses Ellen Petersen, Ethel Schroeder, Mrs. W. D. Lindholm, Mrs. Lillian Boniger, Mrs. Agnes Schumacher, Mrs. Bertha Sankson, Mrs. Carl Nebe, Mrs. C. Jones, Mrs. Ruth Snyder, and Mrs. Sarah Strange.

The wedding will take place Monday in this city, the bride and groom being attended by Mrs. C. J. Glick and Ed Clemann, brother of the groom.

The couple will reside in Vero, Fla., where Mr. Clemann is interested in a fruit ranch.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

The Misses Verona and Wilma Norgord, Mrs. Fred Esswein and Mrs. A. F. Norgord, sisters and sister-in-law of Miss Viola Norgord, entertained at a supper and evening party at Feys' variety park last Thursday night in announcement of her engagement and approaching marriage to Lester Dau, son of Mrs. Caroline Dau of Davenport.

The wedding will be an afternoon ceremony of Wednesday, Oct. 4, at the parsonage of Zion German Lutheran church, Rev. Carl Holtermann to officiate.

The bride has chosen her twin sister, Miss Verona Norgord, as her maid of honor, and Harvey Dau, the brother of the groom, will be best man. There will be a wedding dinner in the evening and the young people go at once to housekeeping on West Second street, Davenport.

Friends have known of the engagement for some time, but the party brought word of the nearness of the wedding date which was announced at the supper hour. The table was charming in its decorations in the bride colors. There were bouquets of gladioli, cosmos and asters in pink and white colors and the chandeliers were festooned in crepe paper, while place cards and dainty favors were at each place.

The evening games gave prizes to the Misses Viola Norgord, Katie McElroy, Martha Eckhardt, Alma Voss, Sophie Brechtel, Rose Leese, Alma Minks and Hilda Schroeder.

The pre-nuptial prize to the guest of honor from her hostess was a cut glass water pitcher and glasses.

A number of parties are being arranged for Miss Norgord who is very popular with her many friends. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Norgord of 117 North Pine street, Davenport.

Mr. Dau is employed at the arsenal as a skilled machinist.

DEMONSTRATE CONFERENCE DAY.

Miss Mildred Warnock and Miss Minnie Toenniges, who in July attended a 10 days' conference on mission work at Tarkio, Mo., last evening conducted a demonstration of a day's session at the conference, in this manner giving an interesting report of the meeting. The program was given under the auspices of the Young People's society of the United Presbyterian church and began with morning prayer and the serving of breakfast in the church basement after the manner done at the conference. The company then went to the church auditorium where there was an organ meditation, followed by bible study when messages were given from the conference and then followed a mission study period when a practical demonstration of the method of mission work was given. The institute period followed when problems in mission work were presented and discussed and questions asked and answered. During the recreation hour a watermelon feast was served in the basement and this was followed by a number of stunts put on by the young people of the congregation. Vesper service followed and the evening session was opened and the work of the year discussed, a consecration service closing the meeting, a half hour being left open for a "say-so" meeting when those attending were given opportunity to express themselves on the manner of conducting the session. The evening proved an unusually interesting one and the demonstration was a clever way of giving report of the conference.

CELEBRATES 83rd BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. W. H. Munger was 83 years old yesterday and the event was celebrated by a reunion of the members of her family at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Lovett, 1130 Sixteenth street, with whom she resides. There were four generations present.

STUDY VOICE

"Wisdom in choosing instruction is 90 per cent of the battle for success. Without it you will have little chance of winning out. Each ill-directed effort or movement hampers speed; multiplied they cause you to lag behind in the race. You will be 'moving' with the delusion that you are going forward, whereas in reality you will be plodding in a circle."—Xerxes Moderno.

Some students waste more effort in trying to learn the art of singing than other expend in both learning how and making a ten years' career of successful public performances.

SCRIPTURE

Luke 18:19-27.

And Jesus said unto him: Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

Thou knowest the commandments, do not commit adultery, do not kill, do not steal, do not bear false witness, honor thy father and thy mother.

And he said: All these have I kept from my youth up.

Now Jesus heard these things, He said unto him: Yet lackest thou one thing; sell all that thou hast, and shalt tribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.

And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful; for he was very rich.

And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said: How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

And they that heard it said: Who then can be saved?

And He said: The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

LOCAL FILMS TO BE FINISHED IN EAST—Representatives of the Paragon Feature Film company left Rock Island at noon today for New York, taking with them films at tri-city people and local scenes in a two-act play to be presented here next month under auspices of the Rock Island club. The work of filming the play was completed yesterday afternoon. An eloquent scene from the Villa Velie in Moline was staged. The chase led to the river front at the foot of Forty-eighth street in Moline, where the couple boarded a launch and were pursued by the girl's angry parents in a larger craft. The pursued launch was blown up in an explosion and the couple thrown in the water, to be rescued by the boat behind. Yesterday morning scenes were taken on the farm of John W. Beck, 12 miles south of Milan. Joe Tuckie, local florist, contributed the flowers used at the wedding scene at Trinity church on Friday. The films will be developed and finished at the studios of the company at New York.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) If there is only one boy you care for, can you love him without having a heart-flutter when you see or think of him?

(2) After a girl has quit a boy, what can she do to make him quit looking at and paying attention to her?

(3) If a girl passes a boy and her heart flutters, is this a true sign she loves him if she thinks she does not?

(4) Don't you think boys like the independent girls, or do they like girls who offer their love without the asking?

(5) Should a girl let a boy know she loves him?

(6) Why do nice boys want to kiss girls if it is a disrespectful thing?

(7) If you always loved a boy and your senior sisters objected to you going with him because of an incident four years ago, would you stay away from him when he is gentleman and good to you? I am 19.

(8) Is a girl supposed to have lines and other things when she is going to marry or is nothing expected?

(9) A great many people never have serious "heart flutters," but they love just the same. Novels often give young people a wrong conception of love.

(10) Continued indifference will probably accomplish it.

(11) Many emotions besides love will make the heart flutter—fear and great respect, for instance.

(12) They like girls who are independent, but who give them a little reason to think they like them, but not enough to make them sure. Love which is given without asking is rarely, if ever, appreciated by a man.

(13) Not unless he asks her to marry him.

(14) A kiss is not a "disrespectful thing" unless it is given promiscuously. Kisses are pleasant and nice boys as well as others like them. You see, when a girl is engaged to a boy she can kiss him all she thinks best because he cares enough for her to marry her. Unless she is engaged she is giving her kisses to a man, who does not care enough to marry and as a result she cheapens herself in his eyes because it appears to him promiscuous kissing.

(7) Not knowing the instance, I cannot say. If your parents know of the instance and think it is all right for you to go with him, follow their advice. As a rule I believe that experience has made big sisters wiser than little sisters.

(8) She is supposed to have lines, bedding and a few other things if she can afford it, but if she cannot it is not at all necessary.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are three girls. Two of us are 18 years old and the other is 15.

(1) We would like to have a picnic. Should we ask our boy friends to go with us?

(2) Would it be all right to go to the picture show at night with our boy friends if there are six of us?

(3) If our boy friends come to see us on Sunday night is it a sign that they love us?

BROWN, BLACK & BLUE EYES.

(1) It wouldn't. Let the boys get up picnics and invite you.

(2) I think you are too young to go to the picture show at night with boys.

(3) No.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young woman 32 years old and I am not married. For some time I have been going with a widower who is about ten years older than I am and who has two little children, a girl six years old and a boy four. His wife has been dead for two years. I love the man and I love his children. Do you think I would be happy if I married him? I can't help feeling that he will love his first wife more than he does me. What shall I do?

UNCERTAIN.

I think you can be happy if you marry him. Of course you will never take the place of the first wife, but if you try and do your part you will make a place for yourself.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

USE FOR BAKING POWDER AND COCOA CANS.

One of these cans, with a few nail holes in each end, is a good soap shaker. This will utilize all the scraps of soap.

Soak off the wrappers, paint cans with any color of enamel paint, and label them with gilt or other colored letters. Use them for spices, which may be bought in bulk much cheaper than in cans. These cans are airtight and will preserve the strength of the contents. Or, use for this purpose empty vaseline and cold cream jars with screw tops. These being of glass, their contents can be seen at a glance and no labeling is required.

FRICASSEE OF OYSTERS.

Melt one-fourth cup butter, in this cook two slices of onion, a sprig or two of parsley, three slices of carrot and one-fourth of a green pepper cut in strips, until they are browned. In the meantime scald one quart of oysters and drain carefully. Cook one-third cup of flour in the butter with the vegetables until it is well browned, then add one cup oyster liquor and one-half cup cream and stir constantly until the sauce thickens and boils, then strain over the drained oysters and heat over boiling water. When ready to serve, pour into individual cups or ramequins previously heated, and serve with hot biscuits of puff paste diamonds.

PEPPERS STUFFED.

Take 10 large sweet green peppers, cut away stem ends and remove seeds. Chop one of the peppers and one-half onion and brown slowly in butter. Parboil one pint oysters five minutes in their own liquor. Dip enough of the oyster liquor over three cups stale bread crumbs to moisten and season with salt and pepper. Fill peppers.
